Dear Sir or Madam,

I don't think the proposed microsoft settlement is good for the consumers. Microsoft uses the same tactics that the railroads used one hundred or more years ago to form monopolies. This company is bad for the US. It should be broken up into a systems company and separate application companies. The "Dos isn't done until Lotus won't run" philosophy is still alive in microsoft. They purposely put in bugs to prevent the competitor's products from working right.

Thank you for your attention to this request.
